Dialogue with naxalite groups

853. SHRI VIJAY J. DARDA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether with the unilateral decision of the Naxalites to withdraw from the Peace talks with the Government of Andhra Pradesh and Government of India later on issuing directions to State Government to continue the dialogue, there has been any positive progress so far; and

(b) as Naxalite problem is not confined only to Andhra Pradesh, whether Government of India propose to widen the scope of dialogue by including all groups of naxalite of different States so that ultimately uniform modalities could be evolved towards solving the long-drawn irritation between naxalite groups and the State Governments?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) Though the naxal outfits have announced unilateral withdrawal from the peace talks on 17.1.2005, the Government of Andhra Pradesh has expressed its commitment to continue talks while taking necessary steps to maintain law and order in the State.
